Roaming Wild: A small town medical crime serial killer romantic suspense (Steele Ridge Series Book 6)

by Tracey Devlyn (Kindle Edition)

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

In this fifth installment of the action-packed Steele Ridge romantic suspense series, a law enforcement hero surrenders his heart to his best friend's sister and a small town heroine learns the man she's loved forever is not what he seems. While on the road together, the two friends forge an ever-lasting love and track down a serial killer.

She's loved him forever...

The last thing traveling nurse Evie Steele expects to find aboard the RV housing her mobile health clinic is her brother's best friend. As always, Deke's close proximity stirs her forbidden desires and long-suppressed dreams. But his sudden reappearance in her life and curious interest in her patients makes Evie wonder what he's hiding.

...but now his secrets could destroy them both.

Special agent Deke Conrad is in big trouble. Not only does he have a thing for his friend's little sister, but what should be a routine mission is turning into a tour of temptation and survival. He fooled himself into thinking he could keep the beautiful and dynamic Evie in the dark while he used the cover of her Med Mobile to track down a merciless wildlife trafficker. But he didn't anticipate the lure of her scent or the warmth of her smile...or the string of dead bodies littering their path.

When Evie winds up in his enemy's crosshairs, Deke must unleash every weapon in his arsenal to save her, including his heart. But will he be too late?
