A man whose grief for his daughter, kidnapped over two decades ago, serves as his primary focus in life. Over time he organized other parents of missing children and with dark funding, ran a covert operation that catches, tortures and kills pedophile sex traffickers.

After years of skinning monsters, he brings one in who reveals a dark secret about himself, and his volatile nature forces him to make a tragic mistake.

Praise for Ella Minnow:

"This emotionally gritty tale packs an ending you won't soon forget..."
– Gabino Iglesias, Author of "The Devil Takes You Home"

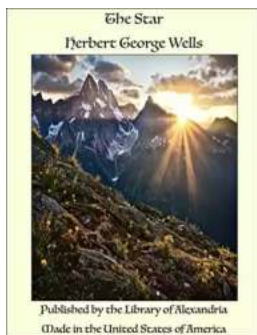

"I [gasped] at the last line... My stomach dropped and all I could do was smile, a damn good story. I knew I'd accept it right then."
– Scott J. Moses, Editor of "What One Wouldn't Do"

"Ella Minnow is a bleak, heartbreaking tale of love, loss and revenge. Not for the faint of heart, but not without hope."

– Richard Thomas, Author of "Spontaneous Human Combustion"

"In Ella Minnow, Nick Younker grabs the reader and forces unblinking attention. This work of dark fiction won't let up on the white-knuckle tension with his gift for fast-paced world-building & chilling prose."

– Brenda S. Tolian, Doctoral Candidate of English Pedagogy-Literature, Author of "Blood Mountain"
