Can you ever trust a man hired to kill you?

Emma survived the collapse of the power grid, chaos in a sporting goods store, and a run in with the wrong end of a shotgun. But nothing prepares her for discovering that she's trusted the wrong man.

Does the past determine our future?

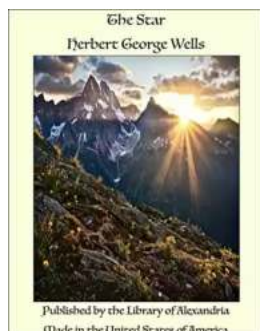

John turned his back on everything he knew to keep Emma alive. If he fails to complete the job, it's only a matter of time before more hitmen come their way. But this time, they'll be gunning for him, too.

The apocalypse makes strange bedfellows.

With chaos unfolding all around them, Emma, John, and their friends are forced to flee. It's a race against technology, tenacity, and time. Not everyone will make it out unscathed.

The EMP is only the beginning.

No Ordinary Getaway is book two in the No Ordinary Day series, a post-apocalyptic thriller series following ordinary people struggling to survive when an EMP plunges the United States into chaos.
