Super Bowl Champion and business coach Setema Gali has finally achieved both sides of success. Setema has the uncanny ability of making a lot of money. The problem is that, for many years, he also had the ability to lose that money – over and over again.

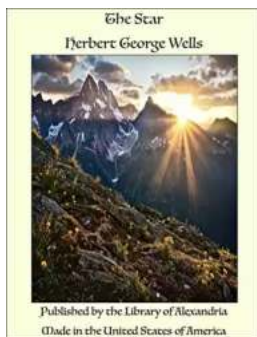

In this interview, Setema shares what he learned from the ebbs and flows of his business success and times when he made and lost money. He found that making money and business success left him feeling empty. Something was missing.

When Setema started focusing on his spouse, his children, his health and leisure time, as well as his spirituality, not only did he start to become more fulfilled and connected with his relationships, but his business continued to grow and prosper. This is contrary to what many business people think would happen.

So many successful men lose their health, their families and eventually their businesses, as they strive to make more and more money, to the detriment and neglect of everything else in their lives.

Once he started to share these strategies with others, he became incredibly fulfilled and knew he was living his purpose in life. Setema is now helping others to achieve both sides of success – business/financial success and, the more important personal success. He's finally scored the touchdown of his life and is truly a super champion.
