Down-on-my-luck and way behind on rent, I jump at the chance for a promotion at the newspaper. Unfortunately, my boss gives me an impossible assignment to prove my worth: get close to the elusive and mysterious billionaire bachelor, Caim Stone. Find out his dark secrets. Write a tell-all story about him.

Turns out, Caim is nothing like I expected. He's scorching hot, charming as hell, and more caring than he'd like everyone to think. If he was the monster I expected, writing the story would be easy...but my real problem is keeping my hands to myself.

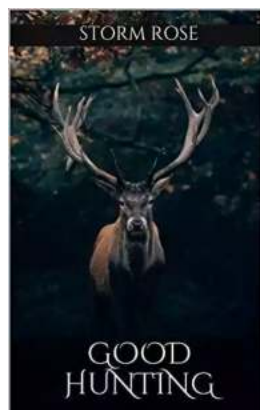

Until I find out the truth.

My boss was right. Caim is not what he seems. He's one of the most powerful demons in the world. And if I don't make the right choice, Hell will take me.
