An authentic and vibrant poetic masterpiece. This unique, tripartite work is indeed an uncommon endeavor that pushes the boundaries of literary expression. Three given cycles of poetry that intertwine and create one cohesive piece, and all with, no less and no more, then three different languages at work: English, Italian, Spanish. This very fact of multilingualism as the basic features of the work alongside with the incredible precision of perpetuating the human destiny in words - makes a certain assumption that this book will be appreciated by a large number of lovers of literature.

To all those souls out there: (one undying wish) – “May the melodies of life carry the soul on their light wings; unquestioningly surrendering you to the sublime polyphony of life”.
