The path to justice takes a disturbing detour.

In his quest for vengeance, former Delta Force operative Dak Harper makes a startling discovery. Eight boys have gone missing in the Daniel Boone National Forest in the hills of Kentucky. And no one seems to know why.

As Dak puts the pieces together, he comes to the sickening that his ex-teammate Nate Collier is behind the disappearances. And what Nate has planned for the boys is even worse.

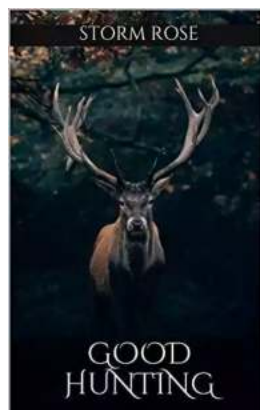

Now Dak is in a race against time to save the eight boys and settle the score with one of the men who left him for dead in Iraq.

This is the fifth installment in the Relic Runner Origin anthology of short stories.
