For Meade Breeze, returning to the place he considers home could prove dangerous—especially now that unscrupulous developers are destroying the once pristine Cayo Costa.

Breeze has been through this before. Little can stop greedy men from robbing resources from the many to sell to the wealthy few. They tried it in the Glades and on Captiva Island, as well as many other far-flung locations—but Breeze was always one step ahead.

Living completely off the grid has its advantages. It makes a person invisible to all but a select few. When heavy equipment ends up mired in saltwater and a construction dock is destroyed, Breeze becomes the number one suspect.

But where is he? Who is he?

Grainy security photos only show a maniac at the controls of the heavy equipment, wearing a dark hoodie and mask—it could be anyone.

With the local sheriff gunning for him and the U.S. Marshals Service trying to keep him under wraps, Breeze soon learns that being invisible isn't all it's cracked up to be.
