“The Impotent “, a joint venture of M. Mubashar Nawaz and Khurram Shahzad, is indeed a unique addition to the clan of Pakistani writers’ writings in English for both , very promisingly, have executed the task of writing such a marvellous piece. The play is multifaceted as it exhibits a religiously zealot, unforgiving and fundamentalist society that gives less room to love and life, brings forth the naked reality and fragility of human existence and shows psychological quest of an individual who is worried about the agony, misery and absurdity of life. The play oscillates between life is what we make of it or vice versa. It’s simple worth-reading.
