Kael is haunted by demons of his own, and their union creates a tempestuous bond, fraught with challenges and a shared pain that ties them together. As their connection deepens, their pasts threaten to tear them apart, putting their love to the ultimate test.

The Emotional Rollercoaster: Rose's Skillful Narrative

Nashoda Rose's writing style is a masterclass in evoking emotions. With every gripping chapter, she skillfully weaves heartache, passion, and suspense, leaving readers completely invested in the characters' lives and anxiously turning the pages.

The intensity of Sarah's character is both captivating and relatable. Rose intricately explores Sarah's inner turmoil and allows readers to witness her growth, making her journey all the more inspiring. Likewise, Kael's enigmatic personality and vulnerability make him a compelling character, ensuring that readers become emotionally invested in his struggles.

The author's ability to construct multifaceted characters allows readers to form deep connections with them, giving further weight to the emotional impact of the story. The rawness of the emotions depicted is truly a testament to Rose's talent for storytelling.

A Celebration of Love and Growth

Although "With You Tear Asunder" features heart-wrenching moments, it also serves as an ode to personal growth, resilience, and the power of love. Throughout the novel, Rose explores the theme of healing and showcases the profound impact that relationships can have on individual journeys. The love between Sarah and Kael becomes a catalyst for their transformation, offering readers hope and inspiration.

The New York Times Best Seller.

Sculpt is an illegal fighter.

He's also the lead singer of a local rock band.

No one knows his real name.

And from the moment I met him, he made me forget mine.

In order to convince Sculpt to give me self-defense lessons, I had to follow his one rule—no complaining or he'd walk. I didn't think it would be a problem. I could handle a few bruises. What I hadn't anticipated was landing on my back with Sculpt on top of me and my entire body burning up for him.

I tried to ignore it.

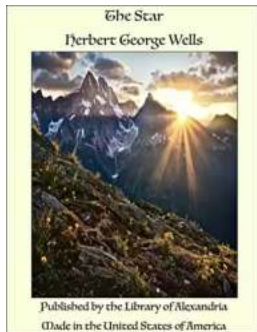

I failed of course. And having a hot, tattooed badass on top of me week after week, acting completely immune to what he was doing to me—it was frustrating as hell, so I broke his rule—I complained.

Then he kissed me.

Author's Note: This novella is a prequel and not required to be read before "Torn from You", however highly recommended.

Warning: Huge cliff-hanger. Like huge! However, the next novel "Torn from You" is released.

*Due to sexual content and strong language not recommended for readers under 18.
